A BRIGHTER KINGDOM!

By Vasilisa Fomina

Once upon a time there was a big castle.

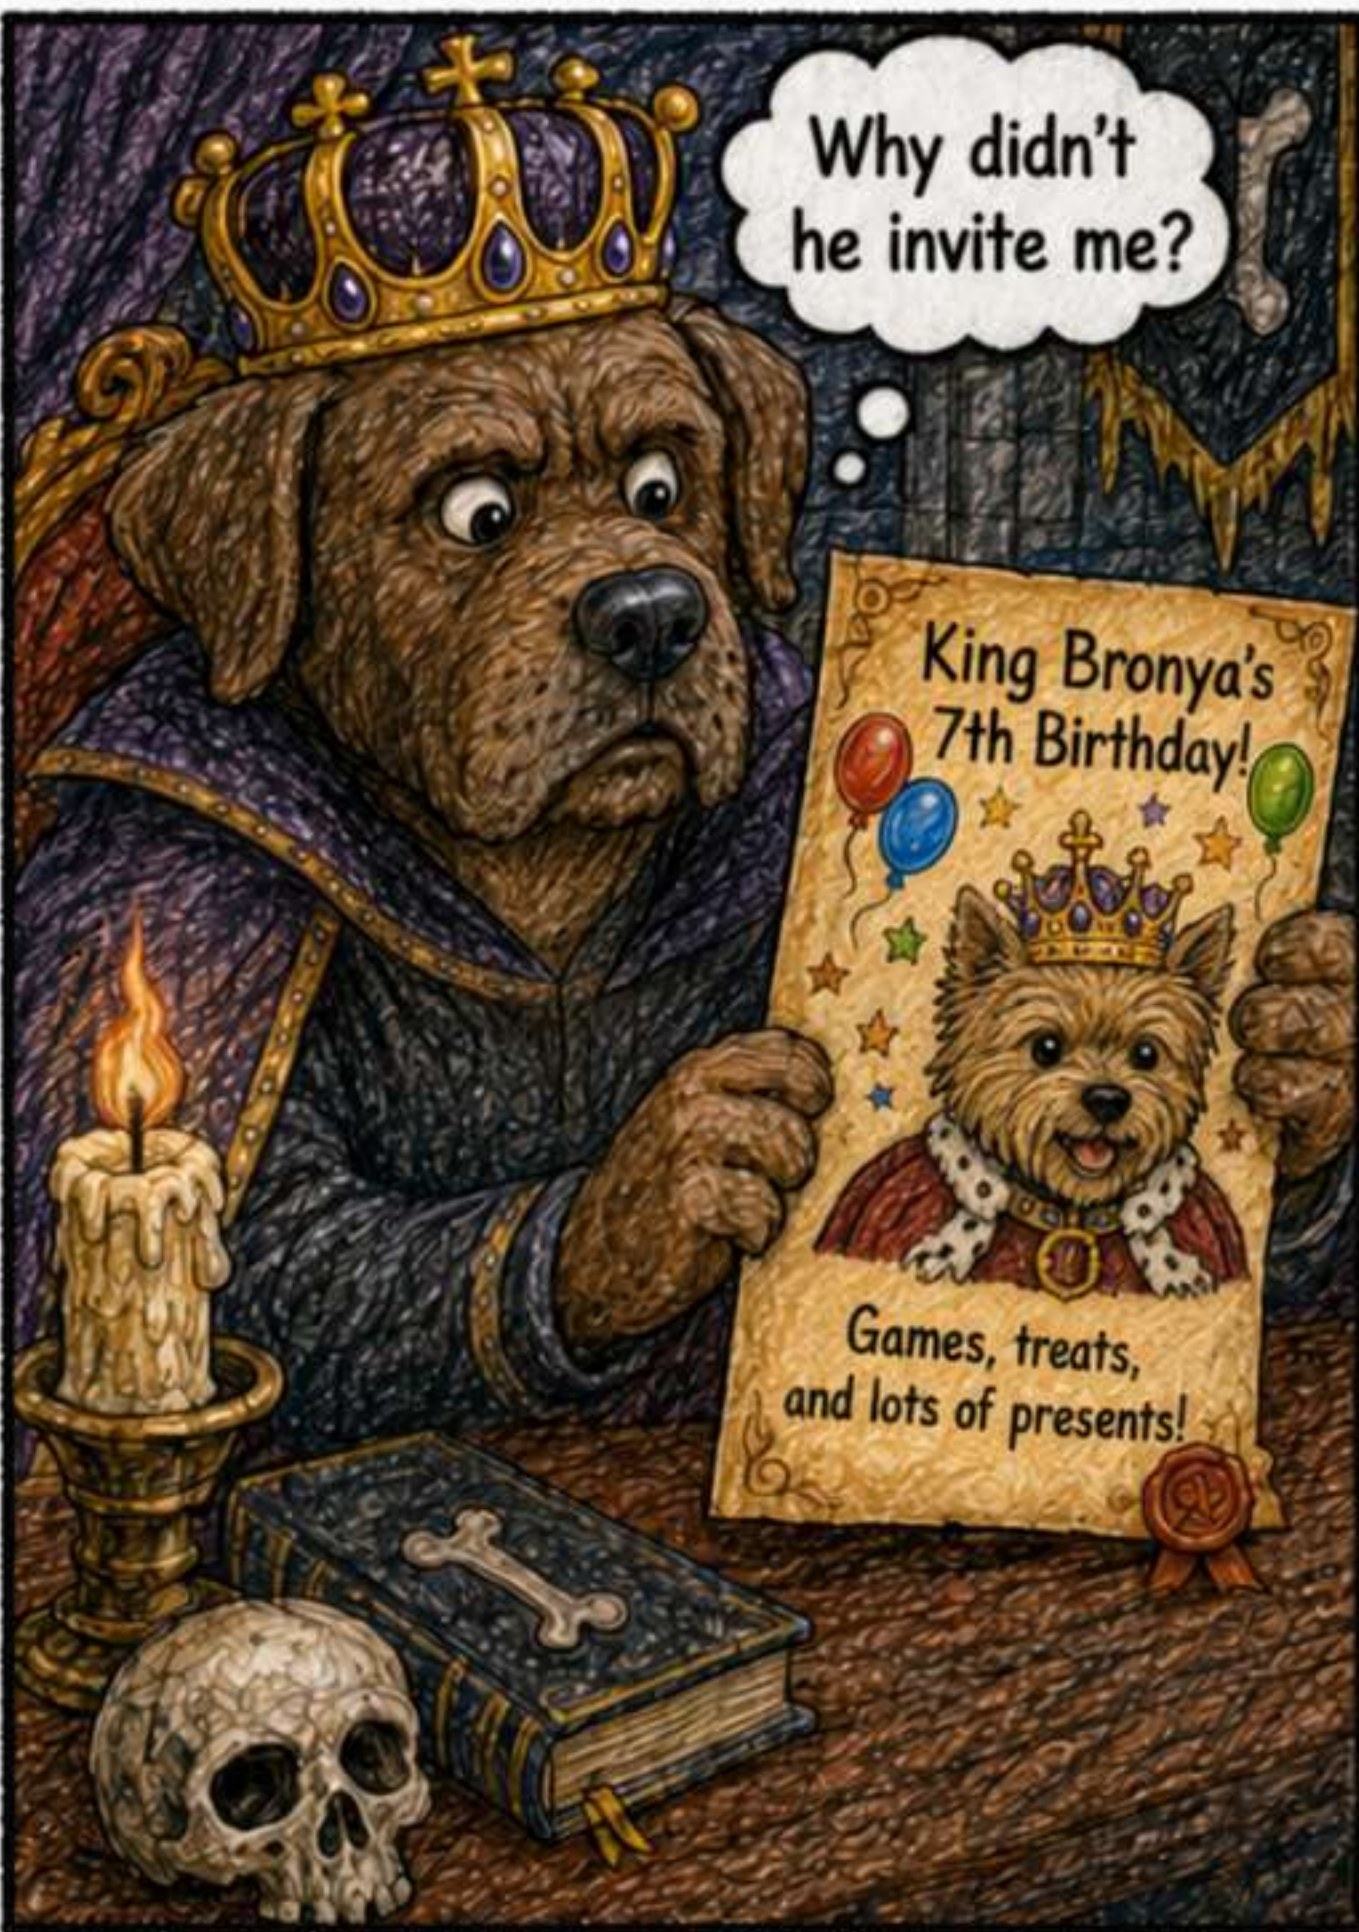

Bronya was a good, brave, and honest king.
And on his 7th birthday he invited lots of dogs and those dogs brought him lots and lots of rainbow presents.

Thanks for good presents.

He only did not invite a mean and grumpy King Artin.

Next morning King Artin was making a plan how his knights can get Bronya's presents.

Knights!

In the night the knights snuck up and stole Bronya's presents.

Dear Artin,

I pranked you!

The real gifts are
by Poppy's chair!

But sorry you can't get there!

There is no door!
